

Overview

Banking and finance is at the heart of every economy, providing the means to help businesses expand and investors grow, and Mexico is not exception to that.

We provide responsive, practical, on-the-ground advice to banks, other credit providers and borrowers in Mexico to find efficient and innovative ways to meet the changing credit needs of domestic and international financial institutions and businesses. Whether you are pursuing a traditional or a specialty financing arrangements, you can benefit from our in-depth knowledge and experience helping banks, other credit providers, and their customers structure and document credit facilities, develop credit instruments, close transactions, and navigate the legal and regulatory environment that apply to banks and other credit providers and their customers, and the credit facilities and transactions they originate.

We regularly advise clients in both domestic and cross border transactions covering a wide range of industries and markets, with special emphasis in the infrastructure, energy, manufacturing and hotels and leisure sectors, acting either lender's counsel or borrower's counsel. Our team has the skills, market knowledge, geographic reach and experience to assist our clients in achieving their goals, while meeting regulatory requirements and expectations.
