

Litigation and Dispute Resolution in Mexico

Overview

When a dispute arises, rely on a Litigation and Dispute Resolution team in Mexico that has deep experience assisting clients in federal or local commercial litigation, commercial arbitration, mediation and other dispute resolution mechanisms.

Our strong regulatory practice includes a solid administrative litigation group that can challenge governmental resolutions and decisions—from advising on permits and concessions for developing a project and protecting the project's development from third-party injunctions, to defending, quashing or enjoining bid awards.

If your business is foreign, we can provide outstanding representation in a case or claim, informed throughout and apprised of the status and evolution of the process. Our bi-cultural staff is composed of lawyers and professionals admitted to practice in Mexico, New York and the European Union, allowing us to provide you with comprehensive legal advice and monitoring.

If your dispute involves multiple jurisdictions or multinational parties, rely on our global presence to handle any of your disputes throughout the world.

Areas of focus include:

- Infrastructure and PPP

Your Key Contacts

Latin America and the Caribbean

Rogelio Lopez-Velarde

Partner, Mexico City

D +52 55 3685 3334

rogelio.lopezvelarde@dentons.com