

Overview

Benefit from a strong Mergers and Acquisitions practice in Mexico with an excellent reputation for handling complex issues. From multinational, multibillion-dollar operations to small, local acquisitions, our team has assisted clients from a broad range of industries, including water treatment, auto parts manufacturing, power plants, oilfield service companies and the food industry.

From conducting a thorough due diligence and flagging key business issues to maximizing benefits through a transaction's structure and efficient closing, we will work with you to make transactions happen. Our lawyers and professionals are knowledgeable about the industry in which the transaction occurs and can analyze issues unique to the sector to structure the transaction accordingly. You can also benefit from our rich knowledge of regulatory matters.

M&A transactions become more sophisticated in recent years, and we have the legal experience and business acumen assist you with merger control clearance before the Mexican Competition Commission, handle FCPA audits, post-closing audits and develop transition structures for a seamless operation, to name a few.

If your transaction involves businesses outside Mexico, our global footprint allows us to provide you with a select team of lawyers with valuable experience in dozens of countries worldwide.

Areas of focus include:

- Competition and Antitrust
