

Nestor Garcia

Associate

Associate

Mexico City

D +52 55 3685 3333

nestor.garcia@dentons.com

Overview

Nestor Garcia is an associate in Dentons' Mexico City office. His practice focuses on Corporate, Energy, Anti-Money Laundry, Mining, Real Estate and Litigation matters.

Experience

- Assisting domestic and international clients on their day-to-day corporate matters.
- Representing domestic and international clients in litigation and dispute resolution cases, specialized in Constitutional Claims, and Administrative Claims before the Federal Courts in Administrative Matters.
- Representing domestic clients and dispute resolution cases, specialized in Civil and Commercial Claims before the Local and Federal Courts on Civil and Commercial Matters.
- Development of regulatory and real estate due diligences for a of energy projects.
- Development and execution of the Anti-Money Laundry Law Firm's Guidelines.
- Assisting domestic and international Mining Companies with the execution and registration of Pledge Agreements, as well as analysing the possible reforms to the Mining Law and informing the clients how might this affect their projects.
- Assisting several international companies for the incorporation of Mexican entities or branches, as well as providing them with corporate advice and drafting of corporate documents.

Areas of focus

Practices

- Corporate

- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Real Estate

Industry sectors

- Energy
- Electricity
- Oil and Gas

Region

- Latin America and the Caribbean
- Mexico

Education

- Universidad Iberoamericana, 2021, JD

Languages

- English
- French
- Spanish